Project

If there is a specific project that you are interested in working with please indicate it here.

Check as many as apply:

- Designing integrated learning experiences that combine knowledge acquisition and experiential learning, i.e. electronic learning portfolios.
- Initiating research projects to assess student satisfaction, learning outcomes, and student development needs and priorities.
- Participating in the design and execution of comprehensive student leadership development program.
- Mapping the learning process — describing how it occurs, where it occurs, how we can confirm it is occurring and what the learning outcomes are.
- Exploring the specific health needs of different ethnic and cultural groups and their utilization of campus health and wellness services.
- Creating strategic initiatives to promote multicultural and global competencies in our students.
- Working with faculty to develop speaker series that complement classroom learning, Mason's student diversity and location, and increases institution's visibility.
- Identifying co-curricular learning experiences to enhance learning experiences of commuters, adult learners, graduate, part-time, first-year, and other identified student populations.
- Developing an assessment plan and instruments to measure student learning outcomes resulting from a University Life program or service.
- Developing a "life skills" curriculum or workshop series addressing personal financial management issues for students in response to state mandate.
- Other — new ideas are very much encouraged. Attach a paragraph describing your idea.
