Mission Statement
Learning Services is dedicated to helping all George Mason University students achieve their academic goals. We do this by helping students understand the academic expectations at Mason, by helping students understand their own metacognition, and by helping students establish good self-regulation habits.

Function:
The purpose of the Graduate Professional Assistant is to provide academic strategies training to students with academic difficulties, learning differences such as learning disabilities or attention deficit disorder, and students seeking to improve their academic performance. The GPA will gain first-hand experience with learning assistance and academic coaching through engagement within Learning Services as well as an understanding of the student affairs profession. They will have the opportunity to supervise student staff as well as learn about assessment and evaluation.

Required Skills/Qualifications:
• Enrolled fulltime in Counseling, Education, Psychology, or a closely related graduate program at George Mason University (not provisional admission);
• Must be reliable, responsible, self-motivated, confident, sincere, flexible, dedicated, and considerate;
• Possess strong written and verbal communication skills;
• Ability to take initiative and utilize creative thinking skills in order to coordinate programs and initiatives and consider multiple issues, needs, possibilities, etc.;
• Ability to relate to people from diverse backgrounds;
• Exhibit exceptional professionalism and a strong work ethic;
• Must be available and accessible for the time commitment involved;
• Experience with presenting, teaching, or tutoring is preferred.

Position Responsibilities:
• Meet with students individually to design a certificate program in academic strategies and to assess progress upon completion;
• Provide individual study strategies assessment and academic coaching;
• Assist with training and supervising Peer Academic Coaches
• Assist with outreach requests;
• Provide academic strategies workshops on topics such as time management, exam strategies, improving concentration, motivation and goal setting, organizational strategies, and performance anxiety;
• Present community education programs related to academic strategies, stress management, and other related topics;
• Act as a point of contact when the Associate Director is not available;
• Work on other projects assigned by the Associate Director.

Time Commitments:
The Graduate Professional Assistant position is designed for a 20 hour per week work commitment from January 10, 2024 to May 24, 2024.

Compensation:
• The Graduate Professional Assistant position will consist of the following compensation package;
  o GPA stipend, $9459.00, will be paid on the 1st and 16th of the month for the duration of employment contract period;
• Other terms for the position contract include:
  o Tuition grant up to the 6 graduate credits at the equivalent in-state rate, not to exceed $4,800.00 per semester; master’s degree students (with exception of MFA students) who are out-of-state do not receive in-state tuition rates;
  o Participate in the University Life Graduate Staff Academy each month, as class schedule allows;
• The GPA position is a 5.5-month contract, January 10, 2024 to May 24, 2024, with the possibility of renewal for a second academic year.
